There is a convincing argument that Lee Haney is the best Mr. Olympia of all time. That said, one thing that is absolutely certain, is that Lee is a man that is universally respected both during his eight reigns as Mr. Olympia at the peak of professional bodybuilding and after, in both his work to continue to promote the sport and to help youth in need. A centerpiece of this is the Lee Haney Games, an annual NPC National Qualifier in bodybuilding. In exciting news, the 2019 Lee Haney Games will be held at a new venue, the Sandy Springs Performing Arts Center, on November 2nd, 2019. This is the 5th year of the Lee Haney Games and possibly the most exciting yet, certainly the highlight of the Georgia NPC USA Bodybuilding year.

“The Lee Haney Games showcases the best physiques in the southeast and gives back to the community year after year,” commented Lee. “We are really looking forward to this year's competition and getting to see all the fans.”

The event raises funds to benefit the Haney's Harvest House, a 501(c)(3) organization that provides a mentoring program for boys eight to 17-years old in the Metro Atlanta area. It is completely family friendly.

The Sandy Springs Performing Arts Center is located at 1 Galambos Way, Sandy Springs, GA 30328.

Past Lee Haney Games have won rave reviews.

One of last year's competitors remarked in a five-star review, " The Lee Haney Games is an amazing experience not just for Atlanta athletes but for the South East."
